The 1972 Homecoming Queen, Chelle Bricker, crowns Becky Huestis, the new 1973 Queen.

The Court: Sophomore, Brenda Chase; Senior Pam Harwood; Queen, Becky Huestis.

The Queen is kissed by Student Council President, Kurt Erlenbach.

Like Mother,

Queen, just like Mom — this was the setting as Becky Huestis became the 1973 Homecoming Queen, 22 years after her mother, Joyce Chase Huestis, reigned over the 1951 Homecoming.

Balloting that selected Becky and her court, Pam Harwood, Jill Potts, Kathy Kidd, Brenda Chase, and Patty Winiarski was done by the Senior High School from a list of all girls (freshmen-seniors). This was the second year in which the entire school could vote rather than just the football team. The attendants, other than seniors, were announced at a pep rally on Wednesday afternoon, September 26th. This set the stage for Friday night and the crowning of the senior queen.

The fathers of the attendants escorted the girls onto the field from cars driven by Greg Landis, Mark Killgrove, Bill Kruki, Gregg Dee, and Dale Marschall. Becky was crowned by 1972 Queen Chelle Bricker and then kissed by Student Council President Kurt Erlenbach.

The weather was beautiful for football, and the beautiful girls watched as New London defeated Monroeville 15-14.

Journalism Prints Newspaper

The New London High School journalism staff made some great advances in the publishing of the school newspaper, Cat Tales, this year. With photography done primarily by Mr. Weber, Cat Tales established itself as one of the top papers in the area and one of the top two or three in the conference.

The Cat Tales Staff took field trips this year, one to Bowling Green University with the Annual Staff to attend a seminar on the various phases of news writing and newspaper operation. A second field trip was taken to the office of the Norwalk Reflector. This trip showed the staff just how a paper is put together and how it is printed.

The paper was financed through three primary means, The journalism staff produced the basketball programs, sold advertisements in the paper, and made the balance by the sale of the paper.

Annual Staff Works to Be Best

Time and effort, and a lot of both, are two items which are essential to put out a top quality yearbook. Not only is it necessary to put in several hours a week at the annual staff meetings, but everybody is called upon to do his share of selling the advertisements found in the back of this book. These ads are the lifeblood of any yearbook as no book can come out without the thousands of dollars raised by advertisments.

Under the direction of advisor Mr. Rick Weber, the editors and their assistants turned out the one hundred fifty-two page in this book. Senior Greg Landis was the editor of the Opening Section, and another senior, Rhonda Hale, was the Activities Section editor. Cheryl McKee did the Faculty Section and Kurt Erlenbach served as editor of the Sports Section. Cathy McCabe was the Senior Section editor, Andi Barnes did the Junior Section, Wendy Hall is the Sophomore Section editor, Laura Mekoleske was the Freshman editor, and Jan Thomas did the Junior High and EHOVE sections. Jamie Hobbs was in charge of the money and the Business Section.

These people, along with those in the group picture, spent hundreds of hours working on this book for you, and their work will be remembered and appreciated for years to come.

The New London Pep Band completed another year as probably the best in the Firelands Conference and one of the very best in the area. The band was enlarged to nineteen members and the band's repertoire included about twenty songs. The Pep Band performed at all the home basketball games, for a Fitchville grange meeting and for a pre-tournament basketball practice. The band also provided the music for the half-time Drill Team routines.

Junior class inductees included Laura Mekoleske, Evelyn Crabbs, Rita Harris, Andrea Barnes, Lynda Jason, Kevin Nestor, and Teresa O'Dell.

Sophomores named to the group included Roman Rudy, Herb Gregory, Ruth Ann Cowie, and Sue Koshar. Sophomores were admitted this year for the first time ever due to a revision in the national charter of the society.

Tapping the new members were the old members, Jeanine Marett, Diane Runkle, Sheree Thomas, Cathy McCabe, Kurt Erlenbach, Brent Fox, Carla Hargis, Greg Landis, and Rhonda Hale, present members of the local NHS chapter.

The new members were introduced to the student body by John McGowan, faculty advisor to the local society group.

The inductees participated in a formal initiation ceremony March 15 in the gym.

A Time for Us

The juniors this year moved the annual spring prom to the Redwood Room of the Convocation Center at Ashland College. The dinner, a cold buffet, began at 7:00 followed by the reading of a class prophesy by Student Council President Kurt Erlenbach. The Seniors Wills were to be read by Senior Jerry Scheerer, but they were inadvertently left in New London and that part of the program was omitted. The Grand March began at 9:00 with Kevin Nestor, the Junior Class President, reading the names — dancing followed until midnight. Post-prom was held at the school with square dancing in the multi-purpose room and various games in the gym. Free food was provided all night long by Dor-lo Pizza as pizza, soft drinks, and other items were offered to the promgoers. A light breakfast was held at 4:00 that morning with rolls, milk, and juice being served.

"A Time For Us" was the theme of this year's prom and the juniors did an excellent job.

Council Adopts New Constitution

The Student Council in 1974 completed one of several steps to make the student governing body into a productive organization with the completion of a new constitution. The new constitution reduces the number of representatives from almost thirty to sixteen in the coming years. The committee which wrote the document consisted of Kurt Erlenbach, Greg Landis, Kathy Kidd, Chris Nestor, Lisa Nirode Collette Howell, and Renee Wilcoxen.

This year's Council held the most productive Slave Sale of any year to date raising over $280 for the group's treasury. Council members played the part of Santa Claus for the New London Merchants, helped patrol the elementary students as they got off their buses in the early morning darkness caused by the energy crisis return to daylight savings time, and sponsored a 1950's day and dance. Officers for the 1973-74 Council were Kurt Erlenbach — president, Greg Landis — vice-president, Dawn Young — treasurer, and Rhonda Hale — secretary.

With first year math teacher Mr. Robert Gregory as advisor, this year's Student Council made definative moves toward making the Council a useful and functioning part of the running of the school. The Student Council can be an effective bridge between the faculty-administration and the student body and the new constitution will help make the council into that kind of bridge.

Marching Band Still Great

New London's renowned marching band began its summer activities by appearing in the Miss Ohio Pageant Parade and Marching Contest, which they won for the sixth straight year. Before they appeared in the Carnation Festival Parade at Alliance, the band made two local marches and another showing in Sandusky. To climax their summer activities, the band appeared in the Ohio State Fair Marching Contest, where they were chosen as one of the top six bands and earned an excellent rating in field competition.

The fall season greeted them with the traditional appearances at all New London football games. Some of their parade appearances were at festivals in Newcomerstown, Sandusky, and Massilon. To end their fall appearances the band marched and won the Ashland Halloween Parade for the sixth straight year.

The marching band has twenty-five senior members, that will be missed next year.

For the annual trip, the band worked in the candy store, sold raffle tickets, and made approximately 2,800 dollars, on five paper drives. The trip was to Niagara Falls, which lasted four days. The parade in which they marched had tough competition, it was the Miss U.S.A. Blossom Festival Parade, where many good bands go.

Although the Marching Band is most widely known, it is just one part of the varied instrumental music program at New London which has brought recognition to the school and pride to those students who have worked to make it great.

The High School Chorus had a good year of enjoyment and singing. They participated in the Ohio Music Education Association, District II Festival at Bellevue and a group of girls formed an ensemble receiving a II rating.

The Chorus consists of about thirty-six high school students and one eighth grader, which is the pianist, Mike J. Thomas.

The first concert was held in December for Christmas, then the winter concert in February. The spring concert was held on May 19, in which Rhonda Hale was awarded the National Choral Award as the outstanding chorus member.

The Chorus also sang for the various holiday assemblies during school.

Sixth Annual Band Trip

Niagara Falls, Canada was the destination of this year's band trip as over one hundred students and adults packed up and left on the four-day jaunt over the border. The reason for the trip was the Miss U.S.A. Pageant held in Niagara Falls, New York. Over eighty bands from the eastern United States and Canada participated in the parade which started in Canada and crossed the Rainbow Bridge overlooking the falls and ended at the brand new Convention Center in Niagara Falls, New York. The band saw all the sights in and around Niagara Falls including the Ontario Hydro Plant, Fort Niagara, the tunnels under the falls, the lights shown on the falls at night, and the Skylon Center built to give a bird's-eye view of the Falls. The band members also witnessed a disaster as two men went over the Falls in a boat in full view of several hundred people, including several from New London.

This is the sixth year that New London students have gone on a band trip and the experience is extremely valuable for all those who attend. For many people, these trips will be the only chance that they may have to see such sights as Niagara Falls and the many other places which have been visited by the band.

Work for this band trip began early in the school year. The band members participated in fund raising activities such as paper and bottle drives, a raffle, working in the band's candy store, and even a trash pick-up in the spring which is a benefit to the community as well as the band. Also, any money won at the Ohio State Fair in the preceeding summer in the marching band competition went toward the excursion.

Wildcats Co-Champs — Bob Williams Ohio Back

Three conference titles in four years would be enough to satisfy most people, and the Wildcats came just shy of winning their third in this 1973 season. Led by captains Jerry Scheerer, Jamie Hobbs, and Bobby Williams, the Wildcats won eight games, lost two and had a conference record on six wins and one loss. They ended up co-champs with Norwalk St. Paul. The Wildcats won more than their share of honors for the football season as five New London players were on the All-Firelands-Conference first teams and five were placed on the all area teams. Bob Williams gained more honors than most people will earn in a lifetime as the 5' 10" runner was All-Ohio Back of the Year, All-Ohio first team, the Northwest Ohio Back of the Year, the Ashland Area Player of the year, the area's leading scorer and the area's leading rusher. Bob scored 120 points and ran for 1315 yards and was placed with Jamie Hobbs on the All-Ohio first team. Bob was the second consecutive New London player to be chosen as Ohio Back of the Year as Mark Mullins won the same honor last year.

On the Firelands Conference first teams from New London were Bob Williams, Jamie Hobbs, Doug Brown, Dave Mourton, and Jerry Scheerer.

The Wildcat offense scored 238 points for an average of 23.8 points per game while the New London defense allowed only 162 points for a 16.2 ppg average. New London's big game was the first with Northwestern as the Cats rolled up 51 points on seven Bob Williams touchdowns and ended the game with over 500 yards total offense. The Wildcats had their six game winning streak stopped by St. Paul on the Flyer's field 26-0 but went on to win their last two conference games to win their share of the FC crown. The Wildcats had a little help from the Edison Chargers when, on the last day of the season, the Chargers defeated the Flyers to give New London a share of first place.

The young Cat's lone win of the season came at the expense of Western Reserve by a score of 16-6. Leading the scoring of New London was Steve Johnson, from the reserve squad, with ten points and quarterback Mike Scheerer talling the other six. The two draws came against Black River via a scoreless deadlock and Edison by a 6-6 score. The two losses were inflicted by South Central and Crestview.

Herb Gregory

The Wildcat cross-country team, led by sophomore Herb Gregory, ran to a second place finish in the Firelands Conference and a fourth place finish in the thirteen team sectional tournament. New London's harriers finished with a record of four wins and six losses in dual meets, scored a ninth place finish in the Ontario Invitational, and sent New London's first runner to the state tournament in Columbus. Herb Gregory placed fourth in the sectional meet to qualify for the district along with Greg Landis and these two runners represented the Wildcats well at the meet in Ottowa. Gregory finished in eleventh place and qualified for the state meet while Landis ran his best two-mile of the year but failed to make it to Columbus. Gregory ended up in sixteenth position in the state; a very rare accomplishment for a sophomore.

Five of the nine members of this year's team were seniors, and Coach Robert Knoll will be looking for somebody to fill the holes left by Greg Landis, Bob Hunter, Mark Killgrove, Bill Kruki, and Brent Fox.

Gregory lettered again for the Wildcats and continued his streak of never being beaten by another New London runner. He placed in the first spot in six of New London's ten dual meets and was always the first Wildcat to cross the line.

Gregory's best time was 9:42, the New London track record, Landis had his best time in the district meet (10:46), and Bob Hunter had his best time of 10:29 against Monroeville.

Cagers End Season 8-11

The Varsity Wildcat basketball am went through a disappointing ason even though they ended h the best record of any New ndon varsity basketball team in veral years. Their record of eight ns and eleven losses put them sixth place in the eight team elands Conference and gave ach John Ruya his first taste of h school basketball coaching.

The Wildcats began the first part the season in fairly good shpe they reached Christmas vacation h a record of four wins and two losses. A four game losing streak hurt the team but a three game winning streak brought the Cat's record to 5-7 & made believers out of the Wildcat fans. It looked like the New London team was going to have a winning record. But a one point loss to the Edison Chargers, one of the Firelands Conference's less notable teams, dropped the team's morale and the Wildcats just could not put it together for their last two games.

A close loss to Buckeye Central in the Mansfield Tournament ended the high school careers of six New London seniors. Dale Marschall was voted on to the All-Firelands-Conference second team and Dave Nirode earned an honorable mention. Marschall finished out the season on a painful note as an injured knee kept him out of most of the final contests. He had knee surgery after the end of the season. Bob Williams, Gregg Dee, Steve Caldwell, Greg Landis, and Doug Brown were the other seniorson the team.

The Wildcat track men had one of the best seasons in the long history of New London track this year. The highlight of the year came with the state meet in Columbus as sophomore Herb Gregory finished in second place in the two mile run with a school-record time of 9:48.4. Senior Bob Williams became the second New London athlete in history to qualify for the state meet in three events as he went to Columbus in the 100 yard dash, the 220 yard dash and the long jump. Bob set a school record in the long jump at the sectional meet with a jump of 21' 8½" and he ended the year with another record of 318 total points scored in meets this year.

Brian Granneman became a record breaker this year as he broke the 38 year old high jump record with a jump of 6' 0½".

As a team, the Wildcats won the Conference championship and defeated the 1973 state champions Clearview in two out of three invitational meets. New London won the Firelands Conference with a total of fifty-three points compared to Mapleton's fifty-one. The first place gave the Wildcats a total of three first place finishes in the Firelands this year, one more than any other school in the conference.

In the Columbia and Vermilion Invitationals the Wildcats placed first of eight teams competing. The competition included the 1973 state champs Clearview which New London defeated by one and three points respectively. In the third meet in which the Wildcats went up against Clearview, the Clippers won by seven points.

As the umpire watches, Doug Brown speeds home ahead of the throw.

Marsh Throws No-Hitter Team Finishes Season 6-13

The Wildcat baseball team had a down year as they ended their season with a 6-13 mark and did not get past the first game of the sectional tournament. The Wildcats had been the district runner-ups the last two years but could not make it past the sectional tourney this year.

Senior Gregg Dee was selected as the team's Most Valuable Player and he also was the team's Best Defensive Player. Ed Youngless was the Best Offensive Player as he ended with a batting average of .368 in nineteen games. Sophomore Larry Hale won the base-stealing crown with 35.

Junior Jeff Marsh was again the team's best pitcher as he ended the year with an ERA of 1.40, the lowest on the pitching staff. He struck out 88 batters in 55 innings for an average of over one and a half per inning. He ended the year with a 2-3 record. His pitching masterpiece was against Western Reserve when he struck out 17 batters, gave up no hits and won 8-0.

Ed Youngless, Larry Hale and Jeff Marsh will be back next year along with other letter winners Kevin Nestor, Mick Williams, and Scott Bricker to bring the Wildcats back to winning form.

Golfers Win Firelands Conference by Thirty Strokes

New London's golfers became the third Wildcat team to take a conference title this year when they waltzed to the Conference crown by thirty strokes over St. Paul. Coach Repp's golfers lost only two dual meets while winning 10, placed second in the sectional meet and sixth in the district.

Black River had won the Conference meet all three years that it had been previously held, and this year the Pirates finished third out of the four teams. Jim Martin was the Conference medalist with a low total of 83 strokes on the par 71 Rolling Acres Golf Course while Stu Cooke was close behind at 83 and Kevin Heileman carded an 84. These three were the low scores in the Conference this year.

Jim Martin is the only senior on the team so it is possible that New London will be dominating Firelands golf for a long time to come.

The Way We Were

The way we are became the way we were. The seniors of 1974 can look back on a year that brought many changes, changes occuring not only at New London High School, but also in the world around them.

The seniors were led by their class officers, who made the important decisions concerning announcements, senior keys, and other graduation — related subjects. A dance was held during basketball season and the elementary playground equipment was painted.

The seniors played a major role in all school activities. The athletic achievements of the seniors didn't go without recognition. The band was led by the largest group of seniors in years, and Cat Tales was skillfully edited by two seniors. These are just a few of the many ways seniors showed their leadership.

The Class of 74 will surely look back on their last year with a variety of emotions and memories. Only time will tell how they benefited from their years at NLHS, but New London clearly has benefited from the years these seniors have given to it.

Juniors Sponsor Varied Program — Great Prom

Success was obtained the entire year by the class of 1975 in their Junior year. The foremost achievement for which this class worked, was the Junior-Senior prom held May 25, 1974. This dinner-dance was held at the Redwood Room in Ashland and was very well attended. The post-prom was held at the school as a fair and square dance.

Raising money for this function took up most of their time as concessions were taken for the St. Paul and South Central basketball games. Cake raffles were held and two after game dances were sponsored by the class. They sold Firelands Conference Champs T-shirts and hired the Harlem Diplomats to entertain the student body.

Scholastic endeavors were also shown by this class. Seven juniors attained the coveted membership of Honor Society this year. In the annual Scholastic Tests, Kevin Nestor received eleventh in the district and honorable mention in the state for geometry testing. Also Carter Galley took American History for an honorable mention in the district.

This class devoted much time to make this a year to remember.

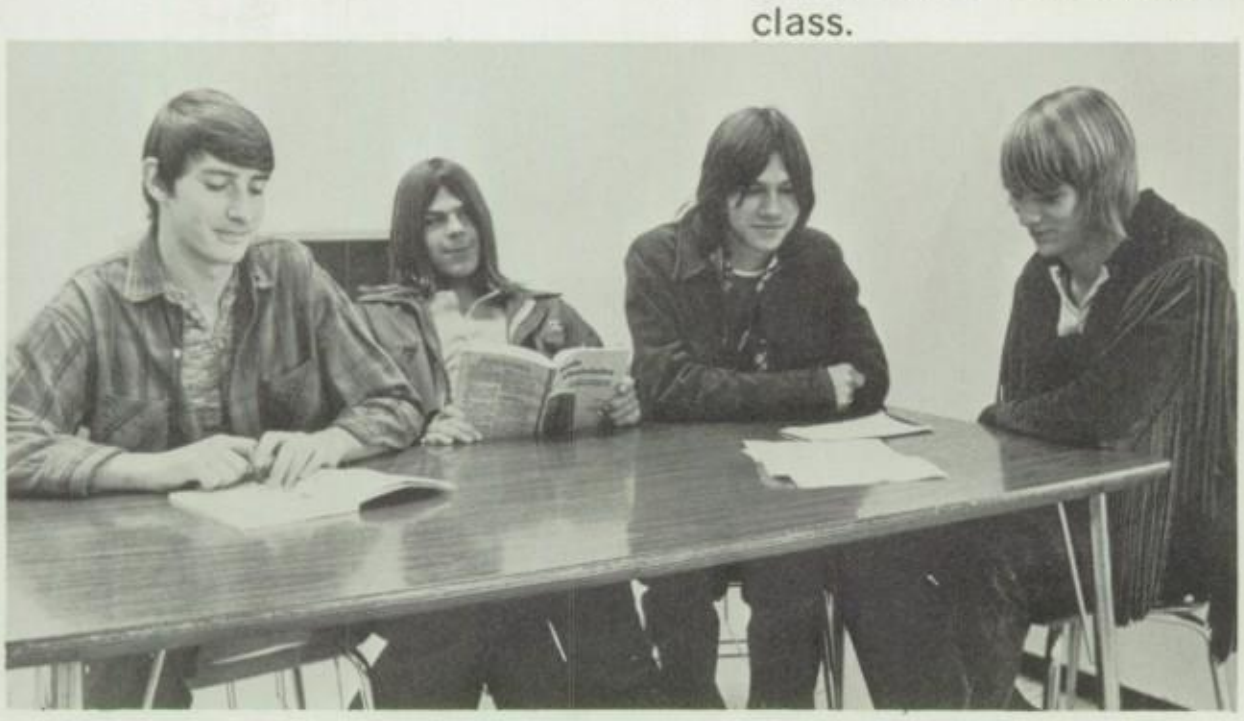
To people looking in on EHOVE, it may seem very simple that these students are just learning a trade. But to the students at EHOVE it's more than that.

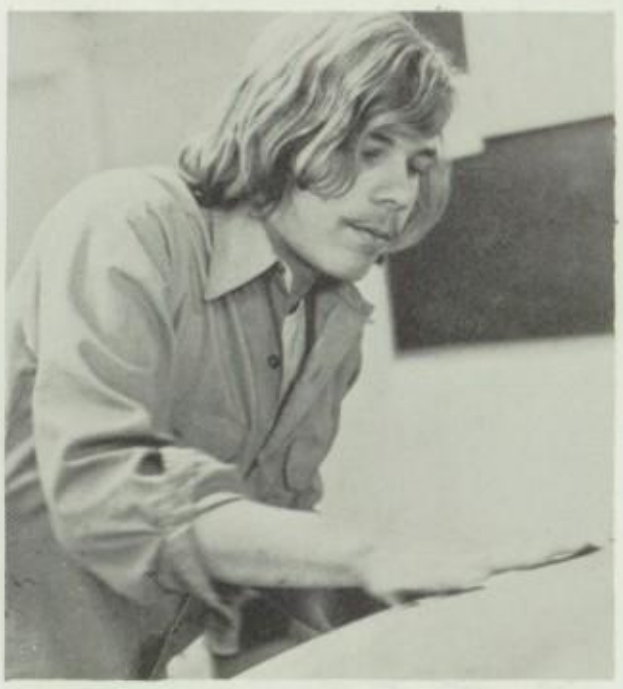
It is a great step of responsibility, that an individual takes, when he or she decides to care for the sick, work with dangerous equipment or run a business office.

Practice makes Debbie Clayton a good Dental Assistant.

Cindy finds something new to learn in her Clerk Typist class.



Time for a laugh, as Stuart, Willy, Mike and Larry can be caught doing in Electricity.



Hey Dan! You have got the wrong car.

The 1974 Graduates of EHOVE are now leaving the campus and entering the jobs that will probably make their life careers. Their two years of technical training have prepared them to enter the "world of work."

None will soon forget, the memories, the fun, and the learning with others from different towns and different backgrounds that make up EHOVE.

Working and learning together.

EHOVE Seniors Face the World of Work

EHOVE produced twenty-five skilled and mature persons. None regret the tough decision which was made during their sophomore year to enter the vocational field and leave close friends and classmates behind. But as these seniors soon learned, old friends were not left, but rather, new friends were added while they remained a member of the social and athletic part of the New London High School.

76 in State Competition.

The 73-74 sophomore class has an active year. Projects included mum selling, three record dances, and basketball concessions.

NL sophomores became a threat in various state competition when Mark Kimmel got an "Excellent" rating for his Science Fair "Weather" project and Herb Gregory scored in cross country and track.

The class of 76 led the high school in the Ohio Scholastic Achievement tests. Jody Luxon placed 7th in the District in Spanish II, Melody Kimmel placed 10th in the District in English 10, Mark Kimmel placed 14th in the District in American History, and Roman Rudy received an Honorable Mention in Algebra II.

The eighth graders were saddened by the death of their classmate Lyle Wolfe. Flowers were sent, and the class raised fifteen dollars for the Wolfe family. The entire eighth grade class attended Lyle's funeral, taking two buses.

Two of Mr. Cunningham's eighth grade English classes presented plays for the Junior High. One of these was "Bride Comes to Yellow Sky" and the other was "The Night the Cops Got Me".

A class trip was taken on May 24th. The destination was the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company in Akron, Ohio.

After collecting dues at the start of the school year, a part of this money was used to finance a class party. Lyle Knapp was invited to be the caller for the square dance, which was held in the multi-purpose room. Chaperones at this dance were Mr. and Mrs. Cunningham and Mrs. Lasch.

Seventh Graders Make First Year Successful

Seventh graders made this year a real success. Their great football and basketball teams went through the seasons undefeated. The basketball team won the Northwestern tournament bringing home a trophy. The class held a party in the multi-purpose room. They also displayed great spirit by decorating the halls and cheering their team at pep rallies and games.

Science Fair Sends 10 to Dis

The director of the Science Fair, Mr. Doug Clark, expresses his approval of Danny's project.

Under the direction of Mr Doug Clark, the Science Fair was held Saturday, March 16 in the New London gym. The event included High School and Junior High students competing for superior, excellent, good, and fair ratings. Approximately 100 exhibits were on display for parents and students viewing.

People receiving superior ratings then went on to Heidelberg College at Tiffin for the district competition. Those people included Brent Fox with his project "Planetary Mechanics," Bill Ferrell, "Northern Ohio Indian Artifacts," Melody Kimmel, "The Metric System and You," Mark Kimmel, "Weather," and John Marquis with "We Came in Peace for All Mankind." Junior High participants were Pat Kelly, "Planting an Herb Garden," Paul Neel, "A Smoking Test," Dan Bailey, "Why Can Dogs Hear High Pitched Sounds," Mike Detterman, "Heart," and Larry Fritz, "Can Mice Be Trained?" After the district, three people went on to the state competition where two, Bill Ferrell and Mark Kimmel, both received a rating of excellent. This was the second year that the Science Fair has been held at New London and it is the kind of learning experience that every student who is interested in science should take advantage of.

High School students, Laura Mekoleske and Wendy Hall, lend a hand in contest.

Junior High Band

Eight hundred junior high school musicians participated in the third annual District II East Solo and Ensemble Contest, held in New London. It was directed by Jim Van Sickle and sponsored by Ohio Musical Education Association (OMEA).

Fifteen schools were represented from six different counties. The schedule included three hundred forty two solos and one hundred twelve ensembles.

Judges for the contest were high school music instructors or college professors who rated the music on a scale of I as superior and IV as the poorest.

New London junior high student turned in an outstanding performance as they earned nineteen superior ratings, nineteen excellent ratings, fourteen good ratings, and one fair rating.

A rating of III was awarded to Jim Galo's trumpet quartet.

Best in 8 Years

Percentage-wise, this set of results is the best ever achieved by a New London group in contest in the past eight years.

Soloists earning superior ratings were Jim Galo, Karen Coey, Kirk Saunders, Allison Perkins, Blanche Ferrell, and Tim Johnson, all for cornet solos, Sue Luxon and Teresa Tester for flute solos, Sue Luxon and Dolly Luxon for piano solos, Eric Jennings and Dave Crandall for saxaphone solos, Karen Dillon and Valerie McGowan for clarinets, Lisa Nirode for a piano solo, and Bill Murray for a tuba solo.

Ensembles receiving superior ratings were a clarinet quartet comprised of Valerie McGowan, Vickie Sickles, Carol Williams, and Darlene Runkle, and another clarinet quartet consisting of Denise Welch, Collette Howell, Lois Damron, and Donna Gelley.

8th Grade Finish 5-8 Season

Coach Chuck Fetrow's seventh grade team defeated the host Northwestern team to capture first place at the Northwestern tournament. The team's leading scorer through the season was Tony Hamilton with a 15.1 per game average. He also led the team in rebounding.

Coach Bruce Wolfe's eighth grade roundballers experienced a disappointing season, ending with a loss in the St. Paul tournament. Even with these frustrations the team showed improvement with each and every game. Jeff Tock led the team in scoring.

Girls Complete Varsity Season

In their first varsity season the girls basketball team played seven games. Although the girls have been playing interscholastically for years through the GAA programs this could not help them win any of their games against Wellington, South Central, Western Reserve, St. Paul, Mapleton, or Black River.

Linda Kraft was the team's leading scorer with 56 total points.

Lisa Lilly, a co-captain with Linda, was elected the team's Most Valuable Player while Sue Koshar was selected Most Improved. Both girls will be back again next year.

The reserve team also lost every game. Captains for these girls were Darla Matus and Rhonda Hamilton.

Both squads were coached by Miss Nancy Myers from the elementary. The girls are looking forward to next year and an enlarged program, new uniforms and some wins.

It was a good time.
It was the best time.
It was a party just to be near you.
It was a good time.
It was the best time.
And I believed that it would last forever,
That we would stay together,
And share the laughter,
With never ever a morning after.
It was a short time, but a good time.
It was a good time . . .
